About Cambridge

With over 100,000 people located within a 6.5 square mile area, Cambridge is a unique community with a strong mix of cultural, demographic and social diversity, intellectual vitality and technological innovation. Located just across the Charles River from Boston, Cambridge is home to world-renowned educational institutions, Harvard University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), as well as to numerous high-tech and bio-tech companies. Cambridge has developed into an international community with many residents who are foreign-born and speak over 45 different languages.

Settled in 1630 and incorporated as a City in 1846, Cambridge still retains its unique sense of community spirit and charm.

Robert W. Healy City Manager

Greetings from the City of Cambridge!

Dear Resident:

On behalf of the Mayor, the City Council and City of Cambridge employees, I am pleased to present you with this guide to City Resources and Services. While it may not include every possible service offered by the City, we hope both current and new residents alike will find it a useful reference.

The City of Cambridge is governed by the Plan E form of government. Nine City Councillors are elected at large every two years. The City Council elects a Mayor and a Vice Mayor. The Mayor serves as the City's political leader and as Chair of the Cambridge City Council and Cambridge School Committee. The City Council appoints a City Manager to serve as the City's Chief Executive Officer. The City Manager provides leadership and administration of all City departments and services.

We are committed to providing our residents, as well as those who work in or visit Cambridge, with the highest quality of services possible. The City's Web site also offers a great deal of information as well as the ability to pay many City bills online. I would encourage you to visit the site at: http://www.cambridgema.gov.

Please don't hesitate to contact the City Manager's Office at 617-349-4300 or via e-mail: citymanager@cambridgema.gov if you have any questions or concerns. For additional copies of this booklet, call the Public Information Office at 617-349-4339.

For new residents, welcome to Cambridge! We hope you will soon learn why this is such a great place to live, work and play.
